Foley's statue of "Stonewall" Jackson, which ts to be unvailed at Richmond on Tuesday, is thus spoken of by The London Athenaum : " Of it, critically, we are bound to say that we wish it had been a better work of art; and we say this, not only for the reputation of the scalptor, but for the honor of the scrole general humself, as well as on account of the sympathy which has led many English admirers of 'Stanewall' to subscribe funds and present the status to the State of Virginia."

POLITICAL NOTES.

One by one the champions of the rag baby lapse into silence. The poor thing is almost entirely de-

Ex-Senator Carpenter is not to take the stump in Wisconsta after all. A severe cold has forced tim to cancel all of his engagements. It is doubtless but as well for the Republican ticket.

Vice-President Wilson should be "interviewed" on the Chaudler appointment. It would be in teresting to know just how much he thinks it has helped forward his little plan of getting the Independent voters back into the percy. Poor Senator Thurman. He used to be speken of as a Pro-idential candidate. Now he is only thought of for the sevend place. The Lerragian Dispatch asks how this the sait would sound; " For President, Samnel J. Tilden of New-York; for Yice-President, Allen G. Thurman of Ohio." A zealous Hendricks organ in Indiana calls apon the Governor to lose no time in declaring himself a hard-money man. Pless you, friend, it is only little more than a week since the Governor declared in Ohio that he was passionately fend of soft money. No man should be called upon to change his opinions oftener than once a month.

There is one good thing about Chandler's appointment. It will remove the discusting display of cant from the Interior Department. The new Secretary is not plous, and he makes no pretense of being so, which, whatever else may be said of it, is preferable to the rideolous attempt of Delano to cover the most glaring rascalities with a preferase of religious desire to "Christianize" the red man.

Mr. Chandler was a pretty strong dose for one of the organs in Cleveland. The Leader tried hard, evidently, to swallow it without making too bad a face, but this was the despairing result : " President Grant ha made many unexpected appointments during his career as Executive, but none more entirely unlooked for than this. Perhaps the peculiar fitness of Mr. Chandlet for the place will be made apparent in future." There is notin-

Mr. Randall's claims of Southern support for the Speakership have about dwindled down to nothing. At first it was announced that the entire Southern dele gation was as good as pledged for him. A correspondent examined into this statement and came to the concinnon that the only Southern Congressman pledged to Mr Randall was ex-Gov. Walker of Virginia. Now Mr. Walker comes to the front and says he is not pledged to any one. If all the rest of Mr. Eandall's claims are as feebly grounded as this one, Messis. Cox and Kerr have

Gov. Gaston is said to feel assured of his reelection is Massachusetts. Perimps he is right, but it looks now as if he were afflicted with an ettack of overconfidence. One thing is pretty clear; the Republicans are not going to poll a full party vote for Mr. Rice. There will be a good many votes cast for the unnotati nated ticket of Admus and Bartlett, and there will be a large number of Republicans who will not vote at all.

Mr. Ries has been a failure as a simple speaker, and the attempt to force any entiresiasm into the canvass for him is a failure.

THE STATE CANVASS.

Ten days more of summing up and the case goes to the jury.

Democratic papers are making a foolish point against Thomas Celeman, Republican candidate for Sena or from Troy, on the ground that he is a banker. And when were bankers disfranchised f

The Republican candidate for Assembly in the Hd District of Queens County, whose chirography lately sorely vexed reporters' spirits, has had his visit-ing card printed, by which we learn that his name is John McAloney.

Senator Wagner's chronic absenteeism is well established by the statistician, who aunounces that in the Assembly of 1871 Mr. Wagner was absent from 1,256 rod-rails out of 1.800. His devotion to business has not increased much apparently since that time.

The Meegan Democratic faction in Albany has undergone a split, and the largest portion has effected a union with the McEwen faction in support of Senator Dayton. Several of the prominent supporters of Mr. Mc Etwain who withdrew from the meeting on being de feated were expelled from the organization, and with that action the Democratic opposition to Semajor Dayton probably ocases to be formidated.

The charges against Edwin Hicks as District-Attorney of his county are fully explained in The Genera Courier, and apparently in a way to remove all blame from him. They were just such charges as might be made against almost any District-Alterney in a world this purpose, for some overpowering reason not yet aps refuses to draw, and indictments have occasional loopholes. This miner attempt at mod-throwing has fatted, and the main issue in the XXVIII Discort can now reappear—is it inwful to black mail insurance companies t

The synods and religious newspapers have isconceived the purpose and effect of the act in relation to the "Sisterhood of Gray Nuns." It merely empowered the Superintendent of Public Instruction, in his discretion, to issue certificates to graduates of school in charge of the Sisterbood-a discretion which he had long before. More than this, one of the enactments of the last Legislature made examination a necessary preliminary to obtaining a certificate, whereas before they had been granted solely upon recommendation. The "Gray Nuns" act. The Albany Express says, was superfluous, and the excitement over it is "much ado about

The charge that Hamilton Harris paid Callicot $1,200 in 1863 to bribe him into aiding the plans of the Republicans in the Assembly is denied by The Albany Journal, which characterizes it as a worn-out slander, and gives as its explanation that the Democrats, believing Callicot to be wavering in his allegiance, revived a claim for $1,200 against him, and threatened him with crimi ual prosecution if it were not paid; that Mr. Harris, his counsel, advanced the money. Why the Speakership should have been advanced too The Journal does not explain. With this statement of both sides probably the caudidates can be left to themselves. Most people, however, will be inclined to prefer the word of iforatio Seyment to this of Hamilton Harris, and consider the fact that Mr. Califort subsequently went to the Penitentiary a presumption against him.

MUSIC.

ENGLISH OPERA-MISS KELLOGG. Sir Jules Benedict's opera, "The Lily of Killarney," which was produced at Booth's Theater by the Kellogg Opera Company on Thursday evening, is it many respects a disappointment both in respect to the work itself and its rendering. As to the work, it is simply a light, melodious, and rather pleasing composition of no especial value, not at all worthy of one of the first of English composers. The song- are scarcely more than ballads (some of them pretty, it is true), and the exactables are not particularly good in construction, and with very few exceptions they are not effective. The recitatives are intermingled in a most curious man ner with spoken dialogue, which might in most cases be substituted for them with advantage, for, as a rule, the former are excessively bad. The score, too, was fro quently subjected to the excision of long passages, and the insertion of songs by other composers. As to the performance, Miss Kellogg made a pretty and graceful Bily O'Connor, and sang the music of her part correctly and with good taste. The song "I'm alone-I'm alone in the second set, was particularly well done. Her acting was also generally satisfactory, though in the finale to the first act it was somewhat strained. Mr. Custle, as Hardress Cregan, sang we ly, but his voice frequently showed signs of wear. especially in the upper register. Miss Beaumont sang the Hunting Song, at the beginning of the second act remarkably well; her floritures were done neatly, and in perfectly correct style. Miss Montague was not suc cessful as Mrs. Creyan. Mr. Henry Peakes made a pass able Father Tom, and Mr. James Peakes acted Danny Mann very well, though the less said about his singing The chorns was fairly well trained exception being that one or two o the tenors were rather explosive. The best work was done in the Hunting Chorus, and the Chorus of Boatmen in the second act. One of the peculiarities of the performance was that the various members of the troupe would, at times, seem to remember that they were representing Irishmen, quickly relapsing, however, into their wonted manuer of speech. The stage setting was unu sually good, the tableau at the end of the second act being especially effective.

The first lecture of the Fall and Winter course of the Young Men's Christian Association was delivered by Bayard Taylor, at Association Hall, last even-lag, on "Liferature as an Art." There was a large audi-tose, which warmly received it. LOCAL NO. NATIONS.

The anti-Tammany organization has not formally rati-fled the Democratic State ticket, but, of course, the vast majority of its members will vote that ticket. When the rejected anti-Tammany delegates to the State Convention returned, disgusted, from Syracuse they declared that their fight was purely a local one. One or two of the more violent delegates said that both Democratic and Republican State tickets would be run out of anti-Tam nany boxes, and there is little doubt that the majority of the candidates for minor offices on the anti-Tammany ticket will freely exchange State ballots for ballots for themselves. But in this election, as in the past, it will doubtless he found that mineteen-twentieths of the anti-Tammany Democrats vote the straigh! Democratic State leket. Possibly Mr. Bigelow's name may be heavily eratched," (the Republicans furnishing "pasters," which will not, however, be freely used by "scratchers"); but it is unlikely that any other of the nominees on the ticket will be rejected by Domocrats in this city. CITY AND COUNTY TICKET.

The Republican and anti-Taminany combination on the ity and county ticket includes all the offices except that of Judges of the Marine Court. While both parties fapublicars put forward Charles Goepp and the anti-Tammany Democrats Joseph Koch as the other candidate The weaker of the two will probably give way before election day in favor of the stronger, so that in the end the contest will lie between Tammany and the combina tion. Both tickets are strong. Tammany presents men of very superior merit and such eminent character that thus far none of thom have been found to be open to the ; attacks of the enemy. On the other ticket several very nopular though less prominent candidates have been named, against only two of whom serious derogatory enarges have been brought. In the combination the Republicaus have sacrificed everything to the demands of the anti-Tammany Democrats in order to secure the re election of Benjamin K. Phelps as District-Attorney The whole Republican campaign is made subservient to

THE CIVIL JUSTICES. There are three tickets for the nine positions of Civil Justice. Some of the anti-Tammany candidates are run in the interest of the Republicans, as for instance, in the Vth and VIIIth Districts, M. J. Shandley, the anti-Tam many candidate in the Vth District, was formerly a Civi Justice under the Ring, and runs solely to divide the Democratic vote, in the hope that Louis J. Goebel, the Republican and German candidate, may run in. John Hardy, the auti-Tammany Democratic candidate, serves the same purpose in the VIIIth District, where it is hoped, by a division of the Democratic vote, that Frederick G. Gedney, the Republican candidate, may be

STATE SENATORS. The Republicans have made a bargain with the anti-Tammany Democrats to support, without ratifying the nomination, John Morrissey in the IVth District against John Fox, on condition that the Democrats of the Vih District support James W. Booth. The anti-Tammany Democrats have also agreed to support the Republican candidate in the VIth District, C. A. Baaden, against Junes Daly, and the Republicans will undoubtedly sup port Francis M. Bixby in the Villth District against E. Wheeler, the Tammany candidate. The Republicans can hardly be brought to support Mr. Monheimer in the ASSSEMBLYMEN.

The combination against Tammany does not extend to the Assemblymen. In few cases are the nominations of the Republicans and anti-Tammany Democrats the same. In this race, as formerly, much "swapping" and "sellvill be indulged in by many of the candidates on all the tickets.

ALDERMANIC. The same may be briefly said of the aldermanic tickets, of which there are three in the field.

AN ALDERMANIC NOMINATION REFUSED. D. P. Conyngham has written a letter de-lining the anti-Tammany nomination for Alderman which has been tendered him. In this he says, among other things:

ofter things:

I have been led to adopt this course by the action of the Republican leaders, who, while promising an active support to the anti-Tammany nomination, have sudioually omitted or erased the name of any Irishman from the theket, thereby creating a prejudical between nationalities entirely inconsistent with the principles of our republican institutions; as also by the action of your Committee, which has polyheldly henored everything frish in the interest of the Germann. Such action on the part of the Republicans is to me sufficient evidence that they simply wish to take advantage of the disagreement of the Democrats, and by adding or seconing to sid the anti-Tammany element, thus disrupt the Democratic party. Wrespect for and interest in the tolling masses is too deeply rooted in my heart to permit me to be a party to the sale of their votes to the Republicans, and therefore I beg to refuse the use of my humble name to the tracet adopted in the interest of the German and Custom-house party.

TRIAL OF AN ELECTION INSPECTOR. Edward R. Scott, Democratic Inspector of

the IXth Election District of the XVIth Assembly District, was tried yesterday before the full Board of Police Commissioners on the charge of being of improper character to hold the office. Capt. McDonnell of the Figath Precinct and Capt. Typan of the Sixteenth Precinct of Police testified that Scott had been for several years the associate of thieves and persons of bad charac ter. Counsel for Scott asked for an adjournment, in order to prove the good character of his client, but Com missioner Voorhis objected. He thought that no man against whom there was the slightest suspicion should be permitted officially to handle the ballets. Commis-sioner Disbecker was in favor of an adjournment, as he opposed the summary removal of respectors on the eve of election. The case was adjourned until Monday.

FOREIGN-BORN VOTERS.

The Court of Common Pleas and the Su perior Court have been busy since Oct. 4 with the naturalizing of foreign-born residents. Judge Robinson, in the Court of Common Pleas, has granted naturalization papers to about 1,300 persons, his time being almost entirely devoted to that work. In the Superior Court the number has been even larger. In the first week 336 persons were naturalized; in the second, 615; in the the various tickets last night, and the anti-Tammany and Republican organizations will be in the field before the close of Monday next. The alliance of the Republicans and Democrats in opposition to Tammany Hall extends no further than the city and county ticket, and is no thorough and complete and sincere as far as that on ticket is concerned. DISTRICT POLITICAL MEETINGS.

ANTI-TAMMANY. There was a very large anti-Tammany meeting last evening at the junction of New-Bowery, Roose-veit, and Madison-sts. William H. Kennedy presided, and the meeting was opened with speeches by Dennis Burns and J. D. McClelland. John Morrissey was ther introduced, and was received with applause and eneers He was suffering from severe hoarseness, and could scarcely be heard. He said that he was a candidate for Senator in the district, not of his own seeking, but be cause the people wished it. It was the people's fight, and they had compelled him to be their candidate. He should vote a straight anti-Tramany ticket without scratching a name, and advised every one opposed to Tanmany Hell and Join Kerly to do the saine. He denomined the reduction of the laborary's wages, and said that the workingmen would not support any man ob election day who had favored it. Speeches were also made by ex-Judge George M. Cartis, Moritz Ellinger, anti-Tanmany candidate for Coroner, and William Masterson. cause the people wished it. It was the people's fight,

The anti-Tammany Workingmen of the 1Vth Senatorial District held a mass meeting in Rutgers equate last evening for the purpose of approving the nomination of John Morrissey for Senator. Joseph Mulier presided. Mr. Morrissey addressed the meeting. He said that the nomination had sought him and not be the nomination, but that he had accepted it and would adhere to that acceptance and do all within his power to defeat the one-man power which now ruled Tammany Hall; that he had come before the people as the people's caudidate, and would remain in that position until the end of the campaign. The meeting was largely attended, and was evidently in sympathy with the re marks of Mr. Morrissey, but there was a ring of mer marks of Mr. Morrissey, but there was a ring of men gainered on the outside of the crowd, who, during the course of his address, frequently interrupted him with load grouns and catealis, and, while he was yet speaking, several stones were thrown at him, accompanied by cheers for Tammany Hall and John Kelly. Notwithstanding this, Mr. Morrissey continued speaking, and his remarks were greeted with a shower of stones, coal, and bricks, all thrown from the outskirts of the crowd. Several of the thinese lanterns were broken, and finally the missiles feil so fast that Mr. Morrissey left the stand. Major Montgomery then addressed the meeting. He had spoken only a few words before he was assailed with a shower of stones. The confusion then became so great that the policemen were powerless to quell it, and the meeting broke up in great disorder.

A ratification incetting of the auti-Tammany

A ratification meeting of the anti-Tammany Democracy was held in the Vih Assembly District last evening, at No. 69 Vandam st. The crowd was so large that after 300 persons had filled the hall, a meeting equally as large was held in the street. Isaac Varian presid d. Rufus F. Andrews delivered an address, in which he denounced John Kelly and the leaders of Tammany Hall for their political policy, and for reducing the wages of laboring men. He contrasted the condition of the laboring men with the affluent circumstances of those at the head of public improvements, whose salaries had not been reduced in like ratio Edward J. Cramer, in the course of his remarks, culogized John Morrissey. He said it was true that Mr. Morrissey had first made his reputaion in the prize ring, but the people needed a prize tion in the prize ring, but the people needed a prize-fighter. Mr. Morrissey was the man who could best wrest disporten power from the hands of Joan Kelly and restore the same to the people. Much applause followed. A man near the platform proposed three cheers for "William M. Tweed, the friend of the laboring man," but the noise of the band drowned his attempts to obtain a response. Col. H. A. Gildersjeeve, Charles A. L. Goldie, James D. McClelland, and others, also addressed the meeting. Ex-tiov, Brown of Florida, Robert H. Pollock, Moritz Ellinger, and others, addressed the outside meet-ing.

The West Side Democratic Association of the XVIIIh Assembly District met last evening in Justin's Hall, at No. 747 Ninth-ave., J. J. Reilly presiding, for the purpose of ratifying the nominations for the coming elec-tion. The meeting approved the Democratic State ticket. and the nomination of John Hayes for Civil Justice. After some discussion, the ratification of the city and county some discussion, the ratification of the co-ticket was postponed until Oct. 27. The following nomi-ticket was postponed until Oct. 27. The following nominations of local candidates were then approved: State Senator, Francis M. Bixby; Assemblyman, George M. Plunkett; Aldermen, Matthew J. Cogrey, Thomas Carroll, Andrew Blessing. A large number of those present voted, however, for the r-gular Tammany nominees for district

The anti-Tammany Association of the XVIth Assembly District held a incetting last evening at Twen-ty-second-st. and First-ave., William II. Schooley presiding. After several speeches, resolutions approving the nominations of Benj. K. Phelps and John K. Hackett nominations of Benj. K. Pheeps and John K. Hackett were adopted. The Association then suggested for nomi-nation as District Aldermen, Francis R. Purcell and Ed-ward Bruens; for Chief Justice, William H. Keily; for member of Assembly, Lawrence E. O'Brien, Mesers, O'Brien and Kelly expressed their willingness to become candidates, in short speeches, which were warmly ap-planded. Some dissatisateion was expressed on account of the approval of Mr. O'Brien as a candidate instead of Mr. Wilson.

The anti-Tammany Workingmen of the XVIII Assembly District held a mass meeting at No. 287 Avenue B last evening. John Coleman presided. Reso-Avenue B ast evening. John Coleman presided. Resolutions were adopted denouncing Tammany Hall, its policy of Home Rule, and its reduction of the wages of the workingmen, and expressed the hope that the meeting would support the nominees of the anti-Tammany party. Addresses were made by Dr. Gibson, Giles P. Marvin, and others.

TAMMANY.

The Matthew Walsh Independent Demo cratic Association of the Ninth Ward held a meeting last evening, at Jackson Hall, in Thirteenth-st., near Eighth ave. Arthur J. Delany, Democratic candidate for Civil Justice for the HIId Judicial District, made a speech, in which he endeavored to give the audience a clea idea, as he said, of the difference between the Democratic and Republican parties. The principles laid down at the Syracuse Convention, he said, were thoroughly Democratic, and every one who called himself a Democrat should conform his views to those principles. The men who were selected for candidates at the Tammany County Convention stood on the Syracuse platform, and all those who were opposed to Tammany Hall must be regarded as chemics. If those men who called themselves Independents desired to increase the processing of the country of the control of the control of the country of the control of the country of t men who called themselves independent acceleration of crease the workingmen's strength they would not go over to the Republicans and support men like Hackett and Phelps. Hackett was a bad man who favored his friends and punished poor men who were brought up before him because they were histpless. Mr. Delany next attacked the Republican Aldermen, who, he said, re-garded themselves as a superior class, and were the enemies of the poor workingmen.

The Tammany Hall Democrats of the Ist Assembly District met last evening at No. 72 Greenwichst., William H. Burns in the chair, for the purpose of approving the nomination of the Hon. John Fox for Sena tor. Col. John E. Fellows made an address in the interest of Tammany, and reviewed Mr. Fox's career and his efforts in behalf of the workingmen. Addresses of the same character were also delivered by John C. Jacobs, Col. Cauldwell, and Major James Hackett. The Hou. John Fox made a brief speech, in which he dwelt on the public school question, and stated that the county ticket was worthy the nomination of the Democratic party. Addresses were also delivered by Peter B. Olney and others.

The Eighth Ward John Kelly Association held a meeting last evening, at No. 586 Greenwich-st. About fifty persons were present. Resolutions were passed approving the nominations of the Democratic State and Tammany County Conventions, and pledging the support of the Association at the coming election. Brief speeches were made by Peter Mitchell, John E. Wade, and Sidney P. Nichols, candidate for State Senator from the Vth District.

REPUBLICAN.

A ratification meeting was held last evening by the Republican Campaign Club of the XXth Assembly District, at Brevoort Hall, on East Fifty-fourth-st., William C. Reddy presiding. There were about 400 per-sons present. Among the speakers were Chas. B. Crosby and Henry E. Knox of the law firm of Fullerton, Knox & Crosby, Col. Henry A. Gildersleeve, Walter S. Pinckney, the district candidate for Civil Justice; J. A. Engelhardt, the district candidate for Assembly, and the Hon. Charles Goepp, the district candidate for Justice of the Marine Court. Mr. Crosby said that the question which agitated the people in this election was not one of a side or smalll issue, but whether the people side or small issue, but whether the people small govern New-York or John Kelly govern the people. He referred in scathing terms to the choice of such a man as Fitz John Porter for Commissioner of Public Works. He contrasted some of the more prominent candidates on either side, and without abusing the Tammany nominees, said it was their misfortune to be on the wrong side in the present issue. The question in this campaign was one of men, not parties. Henry E. Knox spoke in much the same strain. The candidates present delivered short addresses.

The Old Citizens' Independent Club of the Sixth Ward met last evening at No. 93 Bayard-st. The committee appointed to confer with candidates already nominated relative to their intentions toward the Cinb, reported that Denuis Burns, anti-Tammany candidate for Civil Justice in the Hd District, had promised to attend that meeting. A motion to approve the nomina-tion of Mr. Burus was made, but by an amendment to the motion it was decided to approve of no nomination until the candidate should appear and pledge himself to favor the Club in his distribution of official patronage.

The Thomas Landrigan Workingmen's Independent Political Association of the Twenty-second Ward met last evening at No. 641 Ninth-ave, and organtzed with the following officers: Wm. O'Connell, President; John O'Reilly, Vice-President; John McMahon. Secretary ; J. McGinnelly, Recording Secretary ; Andrew Moor, Treasurer. In short speeches by the members if Moor, Treasurer. In short species by the memories was said that the Association would not approve the nomination of any candidates, of any party, but that all its influence would be used in behalf of those who should show themselves the true triends of the workingmen. No names were proposed for approval, but a strong opposition to John Kelly was expressed.

At a meeting of the citizens of the Xth Assembly District, held at No. 529 Fifth-st. last evening, resolutions were adopted approving the nominations of Jacob Hess and O. P. C. Billings for Aldermen-at-Large.

An independent Democratic club has been organized by the workingmen of Manhattanville, who pledge themselves to support none but tried friends of the laboring class.

ASSEMBLY CONVENTIONS AND CANDIDATES The 1Xth District Anti-Tammany Assembly Convention met last evening, at No. 83 Eighth-ave., John

Me ellum in the chair. Peter Mortimer was nominated by acclamation for Assemblyman.

The anti-Tammany Democrats of the XIXth Assembly District met in Convention last evening at One-hundredand-twenty-fifth-st. and the Boulevard, Hermann Fox presiding. Peter B. Masterson and Anthony Feehan were suggested as candidates for the Assembly. Mr. Feehan received 13 votes and Masterson 2, and the nomination of Mr. Feehan was made unanimous.

A MURDEROUS POLITICAL BRAWL.

THOMAS H. FERRIS SHOT BY EDWARD HAGGERTY.

HE WOUNDED MAN PROBABLY FATALLY INJURED-A DISPUTE CONCERNING THE FOX AND MOR-RISSEY CONTEST THE CAUSE OF THE SECOTING -THE SHOT FIRED AT THE DOOR OF THE FIFTH AVENUE HOTEL-+ SCAPE OF HAGGERTY-EXCITE MENT AMONG WALD POLITICIANS.

An affray occurred at the Fifth Avenue Hotel at a late hour last night between Thomas H. Ferris and Edward Haggerty, both men well known among lo cal politicians, which ended in Haggerty's shooting Forris, inflicting a very serious wound. The altereation grew out of a discussion concerning the candidacy of John Morrissey and John Fox in the IVth Senatorial

A little before 11 o'clock Haggerty was sitting quietly in the barroom of the hotel, having just before been talking with some friends about the prospects of the election Ferris shortly after entered the room, stepped up to the bar and took some liquor. Seeing Haggerty he entered into conversation with him about the election, more particularly in regard to the chances of Morrissey's election, which he seemed to think were very unfavorable. The conversation be came earnest and angry, and Ferris rose uy and excitedly offered to bet $1,000 that Morrissey be beaten. Haggerty immediately replied, "You have not got so much money to bet." Ferris rejoined, "You would not dare to say that to me if we were alone." Haggerty then asked Ferris to step outside of the hotel, when he would repeat his assertion. An encounter then took place in which Ferris grasped Haggerty by the neck and attempted to drag him out of the hotel. They passed out of the Twenty fourth-st. entrance without any person following them, and almost immediately afterward a shot was

The boy who wa at the door immediately rushed into the hotel saying that a gentleman had been shot, but he did not know who he was or by whom the deed had been done. Ferris was found at the entrance bleeding apparently very dangerously wounded. He removed to room No. 4 in the hotel, and WAS Dr. Ruppaner, who resides in the h was called and began to probe the wound. ball entered the groin on the right side, passed through the viscera and through the left thigh, and was found and extracted near the surface of the thigh.

The condition of the wounded man is very precarious indeed, and Dr. Ruppaner says that it is doubtful if he can recover. Ferris was sufferin great pain at an early hour this morning, and had lost much blood. If inflammation sets in within 24 hours, there will be little or no hope of recovery. His residence is at No. 136 East One-bundred-and-twenty. nith-st., and he is well known, not only in the upper pare of the city but also among politicians in all quarters o New-York.

The pistol used by Haggerty was a derringer, and the bullet is a large sized one. After firing the shot, Haggerty did not wait to learn its effect, but immediately made his escape. Capt. Steers of the Twenty-ninth Precinct was immediately informed concerning the affray, and detectives and officers were promptly sent in search of the would-be murderer. The affair caused a great sensation at the hotel, and the corridors were quickly filled with excited mea, politicians of all parties, conversing on the matter. A great deal of sympathy was expressed for the wounded man, and indignation against Haggerty was expressed freely The heat of the contest in the IVth Senatorial District has caused many violent quarrels, and has excited the most angry feeling among the sympathizers of Fox and Morrissey. It was understood that Morrissey's main reason for refusing at first to become a candidate was because he did not wish to support the followers who would attach themselves to him. Haggerty has long been one of Morrissey's supporters. He was an ardent supporter of Edward Hogan last year and has been known for some time as a bitter enemy of John Fox. It is believed that Haggerty's political friends have assisted in his escape He carried away with him in his flight the pistol with which he shot Ferris. It was rumored that Haggerty had fled from the city across into New-Jersey, where he is known to have friends who will conceal him from the officers of the law us long as possible.
